

WITHHOLDING TAX AND DOUBLE TAX AGREEMENTS (Re-Run Session)

Date : 28 Sept 2017
Time : 9.00am to 5.00pm
Venue : Renaissance Hotel
Kuala Lumpur
Event Code : 17WS/056

Course description

Where a Malaysian resident pays royalty, interest, service fee and certain other types of payment to a foreign company or individual, the Malaysian payer is required to withhold a portion of the payment and remit to the tax authority. In the 2017 Budget, many of the fundamental provisions that relate to withholding tax has been redefined effective 17th January 2017, resulting in significant broadening of the scope of payments to which the withholding tax applies. For example:

- Payments for technical advice, assistance or services is subjected to withholding tax including any portion of work done outside Malaysia
- the definition of royalty has been broadened to include payment in respect of software etc.
- the definition of public entertainer has been broadened to include lecturers and speakers etc.

The changes are so drastic that the withholding tax regime in 2017 is distinguishable from the past decades.

However, the Double Tax Agreements ("DTA") sometimes limit or eliminate Malaysia's taxing rights. For example, payments made to a Hong Kong resident for offshore services is subject to withholding tax but there is no tax if the same is paid to a Singapore resident. Implications of DTA on withholding tax must be considered on a case-by-case basis, as it would be explained and illustrated during the course.
