

A13 BUDGET ALLOCATIONS

The Budget 2024 has an allocation of RM393.8 billion, of which RM303.8 billion will be allocated for Operating Expenditure and RM90 billion is allocated for Development Expenditure. An amount of RM2 billion will be set aside for contingencies.

The expenditure includes an increase in the Twelfth Plan ceiling by additional RM15 billion, and RM81 billion has been allocated for subsidies and aid expenditure.

Sabah and Sarawak will be allocated RM6.6 billion and RM5.8 billion respectively,

Specific allocations proposed in the Budget are as follows:

1. A sum of RM10 billion has been allocated for cash assistance through the Rahmah Cash Contribution.
2. The Government also allocated a sum of RM16 billion in electricity subsidies for consumers in homes and Micro Small Medium Enterprises (MSME)s.
3. An amount of RM55 million is allocated for electricity bill rebates for the hardcore poor households. In addition, there will be a waiver of deposit payment of electricity bill in the Rakyat's names.
4. To accelerate implementation in the maintenance of Government's lifts and Government quarters, RM91 million and RM170 million respectively are allocated to Special Task Force on Agency Reform (STAR).
5. A total of RM2.4 billion is allocated to build, maintain and refurbish the quarters for civil servants, teachers, hospital staff, policemen, army and fire department personnel.
6. The Government also allocated a sum of RM18 million for legislative reforms, which include the preparation of the implementation of the Alternative Punishment Execution Bill Against Mandatory Death Penalties.
7. To increase the productivity of the country's judicial institution, a sum of RM38 million has been allocated for this purpose. The allocation includes the refurbishment of infrastructure, upgrade of Information and Communication Technology facilities in court, and RM20 million to the Academy of Judiciary Malaysian and the Academy of Syariah Judiciary Malaysia.
8. A sum of RM100 million has been allocated to support efforts taken by Non-Government Organisations and civil society organisation in addressing issues faced by the Rakyat.
9. A sum of RM150 million will be allocated to maintain and repair public lavatories in 150 local authorities nationwide.
10. To ensure federal roads are in its best condition, G1 to G4 contractors have been allocated a sum of RM2.8 billion and RM300 million respectively to maintain federal roads and bridges.
11. The Government will also allocate RM30 million for 115 District Engineers to enhance their efficiency in dealing expediently with unexpected minor complaints involving federal roads.
12. A sum of RM100 million has been allocated to maintain the streetlights, which includes replacing the streetlights with LEDs.
13. A sum of RM50 million will be allocated to treat accident prone areas, among which includes upgrading the existing traffic lights to smart traffic lights and help resolve traffic congestion.

14. To safeguard Rakyat who fall victims to employment fraud syndicates and other welfare cases abroad, a sum of RM10 million has been allocated to Kumpulan Wang Amanah Rakyat Malaysia Luar Negeri.
15. The Government will be allocating RM26 million to intensify the initiatives to deliver services directly to the Rakyat. The services include:
 - services from the National Registration Department
 - mobile clinic services by university training hospitals
 - mobile dental clinics
 - mobile banks
 - mobile courts
16. An allocation of up to RM20 million will be allocated to improve functionality of National Scam Response Centre (NSRC) to combat scam related crimes.
17. Interim Special Grants rate for Sabah and Sarawak has been allocated a sum of RM300 million.
18. The Ekonomi MADANI framework aimed at establishing Malaysia as a regional economic champion, therefore the Government will allocate up to 10% from the total New Industrial Master Plan (NIMP) investment as a catalyst to accelerate the NIMP mission, with a 2024 startup fund amounting to RM200 million.
19. RM28 million is allocated to develop the MYStartup platform as a single window with an objective of bringing together startups and optimise the RM200 million fund under various funding agencies and venture capital under a single platform. In addition, Government-Linked Companies (GLCs) and Government-Linked Investment Companies (GLICs) will provide funds up to RM1.5 billion to globalise local startups and increase competitiveness in the regional market.
20. The Government has allocated RM100 million to MyCIF for a period of 3 years to complete the food security initiated, environment, the community and the State Islamic Religious Council collaboration. The objective is to create opportunities for startups in developing waqf assets for health, education and agro-based activities.
21. A sum of RM20 million will be allocated to stimulate research, creativity and innovation in Islamic economy.
22. To provide financial assistance to entrepreneurs under the i-Tekad social finance programme, the Government is allocating funds up to RM25 million in matching grants.
23. To encourage redevelopment of waqf lands nationwide, the Government will provide RM500 million soft loans funding.
24. The Government will be allocating RM44 billion in loan facilities and financing guarantees for the benefit of MSME.

An allocation of RM2.4 billion in the form of loan facilities will be available for MSME through agencies such as Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM), Bank Simpanan Nasional (BSN) and Tabung Ekonomi Kumpulan Usaha Niaga (TEKUN), of which:

- A sum of RM1.4 billion will be provided by BSN to focus on developing hawkers and small entrepreneurs.

- A sum of RM330 million under TEKUN to focus on small traders such as batik and craft operators, Orang Asli entrepreneurs and Bumiputeras of Sabah and Sarawak. RM30 million will be allocated specifically to finance business run by the Indian community.
 - A sum of RM720 million will be provided to encourage women and youth to venture into business.
25. An allocation of up to RM8 billion in loan facilities will be offered by BNM to support Small and Medium (SME) businesses, in which RM600 million is dedicated to develop micro-enterprises and low-income entrepreneurs, small contractors, the application of sustainability practices and food security related sectors.
 26. A sum of RM600 million will be allocated under Dana Impak Khazanah Nasional to promote economic growth and create opportunities to rural, semi-urban communities, and those with less access to financial services.
 27. An allocation of up to RM20 billion by the Government will be made available for the green economy, technology and halal sectors, guaranteed by Syarikat Jaminan Pembiayaan Perniagaan (SJPP).
 28. To eradicate poverty, a sum of RM100 million has been allocated to Amanah Ikhtiar Malaysia (AIM).
 29. In addition, a sum of RM100 million in financing funds for cooperative movement through the Revolving Capital Fund under the Malaysian Cooperative Commission.
 30. In order to encourage MSMEs in increasing their level of competitiveness through the transition of business models via automation and digitalisation, the Government has allocated:
 - RM100 million for digitalisation grants up to RM5,000;
 - RM900 million under financing facilities offered under BNM to increase business productivity through automation and digitalisation;
 - RM40 million for implementation of the Shop Malaysia Online Programme; and
 - RM25 million for Digital Economy Centre to support small entrepreneurs in selling their products online.
 31. The Government has allocated RM6.8 billion to Technical and Vocational Education and Training (TVET), to develop local talent and ensure the workforce is capable to adapt with future employers and industry's needs.
 32. The Government will also allocate RM100 million to develop industry-recognised professional certificate to TVET graduates and as an incentive for industry to collaborate with public TVET institutions.
 33. In addition, Human Resources Development Corporation (HRD Corp) will allocate RM1.6 billion for training programmes, and a special fund which is equivalent to 15% of the total levy collection to implement training programme which intended to develop MSME entrepreneurs and vulnerable groups.
 34. The Government will be allocating RM70 million to implement Academy in Industry Programme, aimed to provide on-the-job training for a period of up to 18 months.
 35. A sum of RM30 million will be allocated by the Government as an incentive to the industry to train local workforce which focuses on few key sectors, such as aerospace, medical devices and digitalisation.

36. The Government will also allocate RM180 million training funds for the Skills Development Fund Corporation (PTPK) to provide education loans to trainees undergoing the Program Persijilan Kemahiran. RM20 million will be reserved for those under maritime field, arts at ASWARA, Maintenance, Repair and Overhaul (MRO) for the aerospace sector.
37. Furthermore, a sum of RM17 million has been allocated to implement the Tahfiz TVET Programme which aims to open opportunities for students to diversify their skills in Tahfiz.
38. To ensure the welfare of hawkers and traders in the markets will continue be protected, the Government has allocated:
 - RM110 million to repair and upgrade hawker centres, public market infrastructure and 150 local government areas;
 - RM10 million to beautify and improve the cleanliness of stalls; and
 - RM50 million to develop 4,000 units of new streamlined, comfortable and safe trade spaces in every local government area. The Government has also agreed to waive kiosk rental fees for the first 6 months.
39. A sum of RM27 million will be allocated to promote local products through By Made in Malaysia Goods Campaign and the use of Goods and Services from Local R&D (MySTI) Programme.
40. To expand and promote Malaysian franchise, the Government will allocate RM10 million under the Franchise Strengthening Programme to Increase Exports.
41. To improve the country's ports, the Government allocated the following as a matching grant:
 - RM50 million to Port Klang Authority to maintain Jalan Port Klang; and
 - RM20 million to Port Authorities to upgrade the Malaysia Maritime Single Window (MMSW) system.
42. A total sum of RM47 million will be allocated to improve passenger facilities at Tioman Airport terminals, to meet the increasing influx of investors, traders and travellers.
43. The Government will allocate RM350 million to promote tourism activities for Malaysia. The allocation will be utilised for organisation of 2026 Visit Malaysia Campaign, promotional activities and organisation of both domestic and international tourism events, organisation of cultural and arts activities, charter flight matching grant, and funds to Islamic Tourism Centre (ITC) to develop Muslim-friendly tourism industry.
44. To continue preserve heritage sites, the Government will be allocating:
 - RM20 million for the state governments to maintain and conserve tourist attractions;
 - RM80 million to preserve and conserve heritage buildings and sites that could potentially be recognised by UNESCO; and
 - RM20 million to Think City to enhance and conserve the value of Kuala Lumpur as a creative and cultural city.
45. The Government will be implementing various initiatives for the benefit of creative artists:
 - RM60 million under the Digital Content Fund to promote local works and support nationally valued content;
 - RM90 million under the Film in Malaysia Incentive (FIMI) initiative to encourage production of international films; and

- RM10 million to MyCreative Matching Grant Scheme to support artists in the production of creative projects.
46. To promote economic growth model led by Research, Development, Commercialisation and Innovation (R&D&C&I) activities, the Government allocated the following, with a target to list Malaysia among the top 30 countries in the Global Innovation Index by 2025:
 - RM510 million as Research and Development (R&D) funding under the Ministry of Science, Technology and Innovation, and Ministry of Higher Education, among which RM50 million is exclusively for matching grant for intensifying research and innovation activities that can be commercialised; and
 - RM76 million to enhance the R&D&C&I ecosystem through financing facilities to support commercialisation of products.
 47. To inculcate industry's innovation, RM10 million will be allocated by the Government for Electrical and Electronics (E&E) technology field under Malaysian Institute of Microelectronic Systems (MIMOS) Berhad, space sector under Malaysian Space Agency (MYSA) and drone and robotics technology under Malaysian Research Accelerator for Technology & Innovation (MRANTI).
 48. A sum of RM2.4 billion is allocated to Federal Land Development Authority (FELDA), Federal Land Consolidation and Rehabilitation Authority (FELCRA) and Rubber Industry Smallholders Development Authority (RISDA), to boost agricultural activities and improve socioeconomic status of smallholders.
 49. Palm Replanting Programme Incentive of RM100 million will be offered through grant or loan facilities to private oil palm smallholders, for the purpose of replanting of new palm trees.
 50. A sum of RM70 million will be allocated to enhance the sustainability level of the palm industry and escalate its efforts to counter Anti-Palm Oil Campaigns in the international arena.
 51. A total of RM10 million is provided for implementation of a pilot project to use stimulant gas for the benefit of rubber smallholders.
 52. To encourage smallholders to optimise use of production of crops and livestock, RM90 million has been allocated to RISDA and FELCRA.
 53. The Government agreed to raise the Activation Price Level of the Rubber Production Incentive from RM2.70 to RM3.00 per kilogram with a provision of RM400 million.
 54. The Government will increase the allocation from RM250 million to RM300 million, for GLICs and GLCs to implement various programmes for the welfare of the Rakyat and the country.
 55. The launch of National Energy Transition Roadmap (NETR) outlines six key drivers of energy transition. In order to realise the NETR aspiration and its target towards net zero carbon emission, the Government will allocate RM2 billion to facilitate the National Energy Transition.
 56. In addition, Financial Institutions will also provide financing facilities up to RM200 billion to encourage industry to transition towards low-carbon economy.
 57. To boost growth in the Electric Vehicle (EV) industry and encourage acceptance of EV to the Rakyat, Prasarana Malaysia Berhad agreed to acquire 150 electric buses and construction of 3 bus depots, costing RM600 million.

58. To preserve and protect natural treasures which include forestry and endangered wildlife, an increment of RM50 million to RM200 million, will be allocated to Ecological Fiscal Transfer for Biodiversity Conservation (EFT).
59. A sum of RM60 million will be allocated for appointment of community rangers to combat invasion, logging, illegal mining and wildlife killings.
60. The Government will allocate RM10 million to help ease the burden of losses incurred by the Rakyat who are affected by human-wildlife conflicts.
61. The Federal Government will pioneer the issuance of biodiversity sukuk up to RM1 billion involving replanting degraded forests which will in turn generate carbon credit.
62. A total of RM22 billion has been allocated under the Twelfth Plan by the Government for flood mitigation projects. In addition, the Government plans to implement a total of 33 High Priority Flood Mitigation Projects at a cost of RM11.8 billion. Letters of Acceptance are expected to be issued from October 2023 until first quarter of 2024.
63. To reduce the risk of stagnant water and flash floods, the Government decided to allocate RM20 million to 150 local authorities to carry out repair works on damaged sewers and drains.
64. In addition, to prevent any potential landslides, the Government has provided RM563 million for slope repairs nationwide.
65. The Government agreed to double the National Disaster Relief Fund from RM100 million to RM200 million for National Disaster Management Agency (NADMA), which is the main agency for flood preparations.
66. A total sum of RM5 million will be allocated to improve the medical facilities and treatment of K9 dogs and increase the number of K9 detection dogs for the Fire and Rescue Department, Royal Malaysia Police (RMP) and Malaysian Customs Department.
67. To ensure sustainability and growth of agro-food industry, the Government agreed to increase the subsidies and incentives to farmers and fishermen by RM600 million, which sum up to RM2.6 billion.
68. Additionally, Government will be allocating RM3 billion in Muda Agricultural Development Authority (MADA) area in Perlis and Kedah to upgrade irrigation infrastructure and increase rice production.
69. The Government also agreed to increase the allocation of hill paddy or huma paddy subsidies by 25% to RM50 million. This enables farmers to expand the hill paddy planting area.
70. A sum of RM10 million has been allocated by the Government for building new and refurbishing old fishermen's houses.
71. To reduce food dependence on external imports, the Government will be allocating RM400 million for Food Security Strengthening Programme, among which:
 - RM150 million for land optimisation to increase crop and livestock production;
 - RM50 million to implement new method of fertiliser procurement through an open tender basis; and
 - RM50 million to supply 50,000 farmers with bioorganic fertilizers.
72. An allocation of up to RM430 million in loan facilities will be offered by Agrobank to support agro-food entrepreneurs in expansion of production capacity of agricultural products and their competitiveness.

73. Agricultural Disaster Fund of RM50 million is provided by the Government as a compensation of up to 50% of the value of losses due to disasters.
74. Another RM50 million has been allocated as a startup funds under Skim Takaful Tanaman Padi to help rice farmers in growing their crops and livestock.
75. The Government has allocated RM58.1 billion to finance various forms of Government assistance to the Rakyat, among which includes subsidies, incentives, aid and price control of goods and services, for instance RM225 million is allocated to finance cost of distribution of essential goods.
76. A sum of RM200 million will be set aside for the implementation of the Payung Rahmah Programme, for example Jualan Rahmah Programme which sought to offer essential items being sold for 30% less compare to market prices.
77. The Government's Sumbangan Tunai Rahmah (STR) / cash assistance allocation will be increased by 25% to RM10 billion. The maximum STR rate increased from RM3,100 to RM3,700 per household and the minimum STR for singles has also increased from RM350 to RM500.
78. To increase the income of hardcore poor Rakyat and improve the Rakyat's welfare, the Government has set aside RM500 million to promote People's Income Initiative (IPR) programme.
79. Social Security Organisation (SOCSO) will be setting aside RM30 million for employers which hire the vulnerable groups. A special incentive of RM1,500 per month will be granted for the period of six months.
80. Additionally, the Government will allocate RM35 million for its Career Building Programme through SOCSO. This is to fund training fees and income replacement incentives for 9,000 gig workers.
81. A total sum of RM2.4 billion will be allocated by the Government in the form of Cash Assistance through Department of Social Welfare.
82. The Government will increase Self-Employment Social Security Scheme (SKSPS) to 90% to ensure gig workers get the rightful social protection. A total of RM100 million will be allocated.
83. In addition, the Housewives' Social Security Scheme will be continued with an allocation of RM50 million.
84. The Government will also allocate RM1.6 billion worth of loan facilities and guarantees for develop Bumiputera MSME entrepreneurs.
85. A special funds of RM2.4 billion will be allocated by the Government under the CAKNA 2 Scheme to assist small G1 – G4 Bumiputera contractors to complete Government's small-scale projects.
86. A total sum of RM10 million will be allocated by the Government to expand the Baitul Mahabbah programme to three more temporary settlement centres, namely Sabah, Sarawak and Peninsular.
87. The Government will allocate RM586 million to The Community Development Department (KEMAS) which focuses on early childhood education. Included in the allocation, a total of 10 new TABIKA and TASKA will be built at a cost of RM31 million and upgrade of KEMAS Early Childhood Education premises at a cost of RM20 million.
88. In addition, the Ministry of Education will also be building 26 new preschools which will cost RM82 million.
89. To inculcate Islamic education and knowledge of the Quran from early age, the Government will allocate RM20 million for Pra-Tahfiz KEMAS Programme.

90. The Government will also allocate RM20 million to Rakan Muda to enhance the content of youth programmes.
91. To continue produce more youth Bumiputera entrepreneurs and job creation, the Government will be allocating RM20 million for the Tunas Usahawan Belia Bumiputera (TUBE) Programme.
92. To promote Malaysia as an e-sports industry development hub, the Government will allocate RM30 million to develop their digital products with local talent.
93. The Government has decided to increase RM28 million to RM333 million for Orang Asli communities in the socio-economic development, social assistance and infrastructure projects.
94. The Government has also allocated RM1.2 billion to channel various of assistance for the disabled workers. In addition, an additional allocation of RM30 million for the allowance rate which is received by a disabled trainee who participated in the Community Recovery Programme.
95. A sum of RM50 million will be provided by BSN to focus on developing micro-disabled entrepreneurs.
96. The Government has set aside RM1 billion to protect the wellbeing of senior citizens. This includes cash assistance, care institutions and activity centres.
97. A total of RM10 million will be allocated for implementation of PEKA Programme (Your Second Chance) programme under the Department of Prisons. The allocation mainly focuses on competency training accredited by CDB to offenders.
98. The Government will be increasing its allocation to the Ministry of Education from RM55.2 billion to RM58.7 billion.
99. In addition, an allocation of RM1.9 billion will be allocated to maintain schools all over the country:
 - RM930 million for upgrading of buildings and infrastructures in 450 schools; and
 - RM1 billion for maintenance of all type of schools such as national religious and vernacular schools.
100. A total sum of RM2.5 billion allocated by the Government will be used to construct 26 new schools.
101. To ensure children of poor families can continue their school, the Government has allocated RM 150 million to expand its assistance under Kumpulan Wang Amanah Pelajar Miskin.
102. A total sum of RM100 million has been allocated by the Government to maintain and upgrade school computer labs, and acquire new equipment for Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEAM) learning.
103. To continue empower and protect the wellbeing of students with special needs, the Government will build 18 new blocks of special education with a total cost of RM180 million. Additionally, RM30 million is also allocated to provide special educational support equipment an disabled friendly facilities.
104. To help students who were dropped out due to school closures during COVID-19 pandemic, the Government has allocated RM100 million to help those affected students.
105. The Government has decided to increase its allocation by RM1 billion to RM16.3 billion. This is to ensure graduates are well equipped with necessary skills and knowledge for the job market.
106. A total of RM250 million will be provided to replace and extend the coverage of wifi in all public universities. This also includes RM5 million for digitalisation project of the University Teaching Hospital.

107. A total sum of RM300 million will be allocated to maintain and repair infrastructures as well as replace dilapidated equipment in the institutes of higher education. This includes RM50 million for procurement of equipment at four technical universities in Malaysia.
108. The Government has also allocated RM5 million to promote knowledge by encouraging vulnerable communities to participate in the Lifelong Learning Programme in community colleges.
109. A sum of RM1 million will be allocated by the Government to each public university to intensify the implementation of the MADANI Community Empowerment Programme and the Rehabilitation Programme in the Disabled (OKU) Community.
110. To support sustainable economic growth with artificial intelligence (AI), the Government has allocated RM20 million to establish Malaysia's first artificial intelligence study centre, the Faculty of Artificial Intelligence (AI) at Universiti Teknologi Malaysia.
111. The Government has increased its allocation to Ministry of Health Malaysia (KKM) by RM4.9 billion to RM41.2 billion. A total of RM5.5 billion is for procuring medicines, consumables, reagents and vaccines.
112. To provide better accessibility to health facilities nationwide, several allocations for new projects will be implemented:
 - RM938 million to build University Sains Islam Malaysia Teaching Hospital Complete (USIM) Phase 1 in Kota Tinggi;
 - RM175 million to build an additional Pathology Block at Hospital Raja Perempuan Zainab II, Kelantan; and
 - five new health clinics at a cost of RM150 million.
113. To continue control congestion in Ministry of Health hospitals, the Government will allocate RM200 million to enhance cooperation by outsourcing patients to other hospitals.
114. A total of RM300 million is allocated by the Government to refurbish 400 rundown clinics.
115. A total of RM766 million is also allocated for the procurement of medical equipment at Ministry of Health hospitals. This includes RM200 million for procurement to ensure healthcare service readiness in responding to emergency calls.
116. The Government has also allocated RM150 million for the maintenance of information and communication technology (ICT) systems under the Ministry of Health, including providing Clinic Management System Subscription (CCMS) to 100 government health clinics.
117. Additionally, the Government has allocated RM130 million in line with the Agenda Nasional Malaysia Sihat (ANMS) which shifts focus on healthcare services from treating patients to disease prevention activities.
118. A total sum of RM100 million will be allocated by the Government for Skim Perubatan MADANI, in which RM50 million is allocated for medical device expenses.
119. The Government will be allocating RM1 billion under the MADANI Community Fund (DKM) to provide grants ranging from RM50,000 to RM100,000 to communities to facilitate the Programme Komuniti MADANI success.
120. To bridge gap between regions, the Government has allocated:
 - RM1.63 billion for construction and upgrading of roads in villages and rural areas;

- RM939 million to provide water supply to 5,150 households and electricity supply to 2,200 households;
 - RM134 million for installation of 60,000 units of village streetlights and maintenance of over 500,000 units of village streetlights;
 - RM57 million for implementation of 115 projects; and
 - RM100 million for upgrading, construction and repair of basic facilities.
121. To ensure there is clean water supply in Kelantan, Sabah and Federal Territory of Labuan, a sum of RM1.1 billion has been allocated to implement solutions.
122. To counter and prevent cyber threats, the Government has allocated RM60 million to CyberSecurity in developing a 5G Cybersecurity Testing Framework and Local Expertise in 5G Technology.
123. The Government will continue intensify major road infrastructure projects. The projects include:
- Sarawak Pan Borneo Highway which cost RM15.7 billion;
 - Sarawak-Sabah Link Road (SSLR) Phase 2 which cost RM7.4 billion; and
 - expansion project of the North-South Expressway (PLUS) from Sedenak to Simpang Renggam at cost of RM931 million.
124. Total sum of RM96 million will be allocated by the Government for Stage Bus Support Fund, which helps reduce daily operating costs of operators who provide bus services on low-passenger routes in rural areas.
125. In addition, RM150 million is allocated to continue the Stage Bus Service Transformation, which includes expansion of service to new locations.
126. A subsidy of RM209 million will be provided by the Government to benefit the residents in the rural and remote areas of Sabah and Sarawak.
127. To enhance the public transaction network in the Klang Valley, five LRT3 stations which were previously cancelled will resume their construction. The Government has allocated a total sum of RM4.7 billion for the project.
128. To ensure the Rakyat has an affordable home and address issues of abandoned private housing projects, the Government has allocated RM2.47 billion to implement housing projects for the Rakyat:
- RM1 billion special guarantee fee to encourage reputable developers revive identified stalled projects;
 - RM546 million to continue the implementation of 36 Program Perumahan Rakyat (PPR);
 - RM460 million to aid approximately 65,000 impoverished rural residents for construction of new homes or renovation of existing dilapidated houses; and
 - RM100 million for maintenance of low and medium cost public and private strata housing projects.
129. A total guarantee sum of RM10 billion has been provided under the Housing Credit Guarantee Scheme to help 40,000 borrowers.
130. The Government has allocated RM100 million to the Chinese New Village to provide basic infrastructure and social facilities.
131. The Ministry of Home Affairs (KDN) and the Ministry of Defense (KEMENTAH) were allocated a total of RM9 billion and RM19.7 billion respectively.

132. A Single Border Agency (SBA) with Government's allocation of RM 20 million will be established to enhance the management of the country's borders.
133. Well-being of uniformed members and retirees will continue to be preserved, which a Government's allocation of:
 - RM400 million for the maintenance and refurbishment of all Armed Forces Family Homes; and
 - RM20 million to upgrade the army camp sewerage system in phases.
134. A total sum of RM1.9 billion will be allocated by the Government for the management and development of Islamic affairs.
135. Two Islamic education institutions will be constructed with Government's allocation of RM220 million.
136. The Department of Islamic Development Malaysia (JAKIM) was allocated RM150 million for the maintenance and upgrading the infrastructure in Islamic education institution.
137. A special contribution of RM700 will be provided to takmir teachers, Kafa teachers, imams, bilal, siak, noja and marbut, with a total allocation of over RM50 million.
138. A total sum of RM72 million will be allocated to strengthen the podium athlete ecosystem. This includes RM20 million under the Road to Gold initiative for Paris 2024 Olympics.
139. To strengthen the para-athlete ecosystem, the Government allocated RM12 million to National Sports Council for training and preparation programmes for athletes heading to international para-sports event.
140. The Government has allocated RM50 million for the maintenance and upgrading of youth and sports facilities nationwide.
141. The Government will also provide a matching grant fund of RM50 million to encourage the organisation of high-performance sports events.
142. A total sum of RM50 million will be allocated to agencies with potential to showcase the nation's artistic and literary works, enhance heritage theatre performances, and promote the interest in reading great works among the youths.
143. An allocation of RM10 million for State Government's collaboration to intensify cultural activities in Sabah and Sarawak, preserve language of minority communities, establishing the ethnic and cultural centre in Perak and more.
144. To promote unity and cohesion, a total sum of RM20 million will be allocated to strengthen the role of Kawasan Rukun Tetangga (KRT).
145. In addition, another RM20 million as a Greran Pertubuhan MADANI for the benefit of locals to implement volunteer and unity programmes as well as activities related to crime prevention and disaster preparedness.
146. A total sum of RM50 million as a financial assistance to registered non-Islamic places of worship for renovation and maintenance works.
147. A sum of RM1.6 million will be provided for the welfare of public servants under the Ex-Gratia Job Disaster Scheme.
148. Lastly, a humanitarian fund with an allocation of RM10 million to support and assist the Palestinian people.